Crittenden's Banner

Crop of Tobacco

Crittenden's banner crop of tobacco, so far as reported, was delivered here last week at the Stemming District Association warehouse, to grader T. J. Woody by Gus Summerville and Alonzo Babb and was raised in the Mattoon section. They received $12.00 for their leaf and $9.00 for their lugs.

Mr. Summerville says that the body and velvety thickness is given to the tobacco by the firing which in their crop occupied over four weeks. He expressed the belief that most farmers hurry too much in firing their crops.

County School Trustees in Session.

Last Saturday at a call from Supt. Travis, many of the trustees of the county were here and a very interesting meeting was held. The assembly was addressed by Judge J. W. Blue, former Judge Aaron Towery, Esq., Wm. H. Brown and Prof. T. F. Newcom and others whose names we have not learned.

Aug. 5th was named as the date for the opening of the next Crittenden County Teachers' Institute and Supt. Travis announced that Prof. Chas. Evans of Edmond, Oklahoma has consented to be here to conduct the Institute. This will be pleasing news to all the teachers. Aug. 12th is the date decided upon for all the schools in the county to open.

The trustees who attended the meeting were as follows:

Division 1.
Chas. LaRue, W. H. Brown, J. H. Cardin, J. F. Binkley, Jesse Brasher, J. D. Clark, J. B. Young, Wm. Adams, J. A. Fowler.

Columbus Kentucky Under Water

Columbus, Ky., April 2.— Venice in amateur is reproduced here today. Water in the streets varies from a few inches to 12 ft and boats are the common means of transportation. Residents have abandoned their houses or are living on the second floor. It is estimated that $100,000 would not cover the loss already incurred.

Farmers on Wolf Island in the Mississippi and on the Missouri shore opposite Columbus have lost nearly all their live stock.

From the above it will be seen that Columbus is flooded. Marion people are interested in Joel P. Deboe and his family who reside in Columbus. His wife was Miss Eva Hill, a daughter of Mrs. Porter Hill and a sister of Noble Hill who resides with his mother in this city, and from them we learn while the damage will be heavy to the city, Mr. Deboe personally will not lose much except the interruption to business, the water being from 2 to 4 ft deep on his premises and in his storehouse.

Belled Buzzard Near Mt. Zion.

BLOWN TO ATOMS

Grover Newcom Meets Death in an Explosion at San Antonio, Texas—Particulars Meager.

Grover Newcom, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Newcom, formerly of this county, grand son of the late Esq. Wm. H. Asher, nephew of Jeff D. Asher, our townsman, was blown to atoms in an explosion at San Antonio, Texas, last week. The sad intelligence was received here through a letter from Mrs. Newcom to her brother, J. D. Asher. No particulars were given but those who read in the daily papers the account of the terrific explosion at San Antonio in the railroad yards, knew he lost his life in that fatality, which has never been explained.

No nobler boy has ever gone out from old Crittenden and his parents and relatives have the heart-felt sympathy of all who knew him and all their friends.

Lucas—Moore.

On Wednesday, March 27, 1912, Mr. Will Moore and Miss Lula Lucas drove to Tolu and were united in marriage at the Methodist parsonage by Rev. G. W. Wilson of that city.

The bride is the youngest sister of Sam and Clyde Lucas, both of Tolu and is well known in this place where she has made her home for several years.

The groom is the youngest son of P. C. Moore a wealthy farmer of this county and is manager of his father's farm.

After the ceremony they drove to his home where an excellent supper had been prepared for them.

They were accompanied on their tour by H. T. Phillips and Miss Cora Moore, sister of the groom.

The writer joins their many friends in wishing them much happiness through life.

Letters of Importance to Supt. Travis.

Bowling Green, Ky.

March 22, 1912.

Supt. E. Jeffrey Travis:—I enclose herein, check for the amount of your expenses to the last Superintendents' Educational Conference. I shall never cease regretting that I did not have the pleasure of being with you while here. I am very happy to learn from many sources that you had a great meeting—one of profit as well as one that was pleasant from every standpoint.

I am glad to report that the General Assembly increased our maintenance from $50,000 to $75,000, and that this increase begins with the first of last July. In addition to this we introduced an Enabling Act on the first of March, which takes care of the indebtedness of the institution, ordered the issuance of a bond for it, and pays the interest out of the general fund of the State. As far as practical benefits are concerned, just as good for us as $100,000 to cover the indebtedness. We are really in great shape to do a great work—much greater in the future than we have done in the past. We shall use every effort in our power to make the future days of the institution more efficient and greater from every standpoint than any former day.

I am not unmindful of the deep interest and aggressive support you have given us. Your assistance was manifest at Frankfort on every hand. We felt the warmth of your interest and the presence of your patriotism. Let me assure you of our great gratitude for the aggressive work you did for us and allow me to assure you that we feel that the responsibility is greater today than ever before and that we shall go forward working as we have never worked before to meet this responsibility and to merit in a small degree your confidence and your support.

The next term opens, April 9th. This is the most excellent time for new students to enter. We hope to have a large number of new students from your county at this time. Trust you will have an opportunity to have a news paragraph concerning the Normal published in your home paper and that you will mention the opening of the next term on the date given herein.

With best wishes, I am,
Most respectfully yours,
H. H. Cherry.

Frankfort, March 22, 1912.

You Get Square Deal

When You Buy Square Deal Fence

Fences You See In Catalogs with the bulls and horses behind them look stout. Any kind of a fence can hold a bull on paper—Square Deal Fence does it on your farm. Just step into our store some day and let us show you Square Deal Fencing. You can look at the fence without feeling under any obligation to buy.

The Square Deal Lock is the secret of the success of this fence—the strongest, most compact lock ever invented. It grips the stay wires above and below the strand wires, and will not let them slip. There are no brittle welds to snap—no cumbersome knots to hold moisture, gather rust and shorten the life of your fence.

The Stay Wires are in one straight piece from top to bottom of fence. That means no sagging, no bagging, no buckling to let the pigs underneath. These Square Deal one-piece stay wires help support the fence and save fence posts—lots of 'em. That means fewer post holes to dig—less cost for posts and less cost for labor. All these things count in buying fence.

The Wavy Strand Wires keep Square Deal fence tight and taut the whole year round. They give the heavy strands. We have been handling wire fencing a long time and we want to sell you Square Deal fence because we honestly believe it beats all others in strength, durability and appearance and gives you much more fence value for your money. Come in and get Square Deal prices the next time you come to town. Anyway, don't buy another lot of fencing until you see for yourself why Square Deal is the best fence value on the market today.

Wife Don't Let Your Husband Have His Appendix Cut Out.

—Muncie, Ind. April 2.—That there is some wierd, strange connection 'between the appendix and good temper, is set forth by Mrs. Nettie Franklin, suing A. Franklin for divorce, after thirty-four years of married life.

For 29 years she said, she and her husband lived together happily, and then he was attacked by appendicitis. The appendix was removed and after that his whole disposition changed, she set forth in her complaint. Indian Girls Win Fight For Burial Ground.

Kansas City April 4.—Champions of the Conley sisters, Lydia, Ida and Lena, Indian girls, who for six years have defended with shotgun invasions of Huron cemetery, their ancestors' burial place, declare the interment there Monday of Geraldine Zane, descendent of a Wyandott chief, was a triumph for them. There had not been a burial in the cemetery for years, and they say this one will prevent commissioners appointed by Congress in 1906 from exhuming the bodies and selling the cemetery which is in the business center of the city.

"My little son had a very severe cold. I was recommended to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and before a small bottle was finished he was as well as ever," writes Mrs. H. Silks, 29 Dowling St., Sydney, Australia. This remedy is for sale by Jas. H. Orme.

MARION MAN SELECTS NEXT PRESIDENT.

Ollie James for Champ Clark. Big Kentuckian Issues Statement. Wisest Thing To Do.

Louisville, Ky. March 31.—Hon. Ollie James in a statement tonight said he was for Champ Clark for the Democratic presidential nomination. One of the reasons set forth is that he as the nominee will receive the support of every Bryan democrat, and will not be offensive to eastern conservatives.

James takes up several features of Clark's record, and says: "I believe his selection is the wisest thing we can do: it means in my judgment a great victory in the nation in November."

Being a native of Ky., he does not forget to mention the fact that Clark also claims Kentucky as the state of his nativity, putting this feature with Clark's activity in behalf of Bryan, his fight against the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill, against Connism and his rule of democratic house.

Recipe for Success.

Keep your head cool—your feet warm—your mind busy. Don't worry over trifles. Plan your work ahead, then stick to it, rain or shine. Don't waste sympathy on yourself. If you are a gem, someone will find you. Don't whine. Tell people you are a failure and they will believe you. Talk and act like a winner, and in time you will become one.—Stephen Harte.

DANGER PERIOD OF WOMANS' LIFE FROM 45 to 50

Interesting Experience of Two Women—Their Statements Worth Reading.

Asheville, N.C.—"I suffered for years with female trouble while going through the Change of Life. I tried a local physician for a couple of years without any substantial benefit. Finally after repeated suggestions to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I quit my physician and commenced using it with the happiest results. I am today practically a well woman and anxious to contribute my mite towards inducing others to try your great medicine, as I am fully persuaded that it will cure the ailments from which I suffered if given a fair chance."

"If you think this letter will contribute anything towards further introducing your medicines to afflicted women who are passing through this trying period, it is with great pleasure I consent to its publication."—Mrs. JULIA A. MOORE, 17 East St., Asheville, N.C.

The Case of Mrs. Kirlin.

Circleville, Ohio.—"I can truthfully say that I never had anything do me so much good during Change of Life as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

"Before I had taken one half a bottle of it I began to feel better, and I have continued taking it. My health is better than it has been for several years. If all women would take it they would escape untold pain and misery at this time of life."—Mrs. ALICE KIRLIN, 358 W. Mill St., Circleville, Ohio.

The Change of Life is one of the most critical periods of a woman's existence. At such times women may rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

What Is Prayed For.

Five Minutes' Trial and Sentence.

Baltimore, Md.—Emmons Waller, a negro, who assaulted Ella Bailey, the pretty 16-year-old daughter of Justice of the Peace W. H. H. Bailey, of Hebron, Md., and who was taken to the jail at Salisbury to prevent lynching, is now in the Maryland penitentiary in this city, serving a term of 10 years.

The authorities at Salisbury, antedating trouble, had the grand jury indict Waller. Then Judges Stanford and Jones appointed counsel for Waller, who immediately pleaded guilty. He was convicted and sentence imposed, five minutes elapsing during the entire procedure. Waller was then hustled into an auto and carried to a train for Baltimore.

SPELLING BEE PULLED OFF

Before Enthusiastic Audience Which Taxed The Capacity of The Auditorium.

On Friday evening, March 29, at 7:30 the school auditorium was packed to its utmost capacity and the atmosphere was as if electrically charged with intense interest for the long expected contest.

The "Old Guard" who were representatives of the "good old days" of the "blue back speller" than which there have been no better "days" nor "speller" nor "boys," numbered 25 and challenged the ability and drill of the pupils and alumni of Marion Graded High School.

As the Old Guard filed into the auditorium, the thunderous applause of their friends and the defiant school yell commingled, and was in strong contrast to the greeting they received when "barefoot" and shy they first entered school with a newly bestowed treasure—a "blue-back speller," but the interest that was awakened when they "lisp" their "ab's" has known no abatement.

R. F. Haynes was Capt. of The Old Guard and V. G. Moore was Capt. of the alumni and pupils of Marion school. Dr. Mather and Prof. Richardson were referees. Prof. Ellis Robbins of Princeton High School pronounced. When the battle lines were drawn facing each other under a strong electric light, it was with difficulty that the enthusiasm of the audience was held in check while Capt. Haynes spoke briefly in behalf of the Old Guard. He said among other things, "We do not expect to win in a walk, but we expect to win." The rules were read and the pronouncing began on page 24 at "banquet." Before the battle ended the clock in the tower had long since counted eleven strokes and as midnight approached the book having been gone through once, was being reviewed and on the battle field were left undaunted four of the Old Guard, Rev. J. F. Price, Mrs. A. C. Babb, Joe Dean, W. E. Minner. Of the School there remained Anna Lou Finley, Frances Gray, Freda Lemon, Virgil Moore, Allen Young.

I am a candidate to represent the First Congressional District in Congress, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

It is not my purpose to write a platform. I shall make an active canvass of the district, and in speeches give my views upon public questions, but I desire now to give a brief general idea of the course I shall endeavor to pursue, if so fortunate as to be elected to Congress. It is useless to say I will support all sound Democratic measures, but I believe in a progressive Democracy.

I believe the greatest question before the American people now is to destroy special privilege and restore the government to the rule of the people, and at the same time to safe-guard and protect all legitimate business enterprise, which must be done. Graft and grafters in both

State and nation must be weeded out, and I shall if elected, wage incessant war upon them, whether found in the Republican party, the prolific progeny of each, or found parasitically gnawing into the ranks of our own party.

I heartily endorse the State Primary Election Law. The first step toward the rule of the people is to permit them to nominate their candidates for office. I favor the election of United States Senators by direct vote of the people. I shall if elected to congress advocate economy in the expenditure of the people's money, but shall earnestly endeavor to secure such appropriations as may be necessary to improve and enlarge the levee of the Mississippi river to protect life and property along its banks in Kentucky, and to secure such appropriations also as may be necessary for the proper improvement of the Cumberland, Tennessee and Ohio rivers, and shall give careful consideration to any other desired improvement to which my attention may be called. Public economy in my judgement, means honest expenditure of the people's money in a careful business way, and does not consist in refusing to spend it when necessary for public improvement.

I shall strive for the uplift of labor and laboring people, for the encouragement of the farming interest of the country, and shall support all measures tending to better their condition.

Soliciting the vote and influence of every democrat, I am,
Most sincerely,
DENNY P. SMITH.

IN SOCIETY

Miss Katherine Yates entertained the F. S. Club last Saturday afternoon March 30th.

The time was spent in playing 500 which was much enjoyed by all.

Delicious refreshments were served; fruit salad with whipped cream, pickles, reception wafers, hot chocolate and mints.

The members present were Misses Susie Boston, Myra Dixon Nannie Rochester, Kathryn Yandell, Eiva Pickens, Maude Flanary, Frances Blue, Madeleine Jenkins and Katharine Yates.

After spending a most enjoyable afternoon the club disbanded to meet with Miss Kathryn Yandell, next month.

Mrs. W. Norman Russell at her beautiful home on north Main street entertained her friends last Wednesday afternoon with a farewell party, or rather a party announcing for the first time, their intended departure at an early date for Houston, Texas, to reside.

The news was a complete surprise to the friends of the hostess and was announced in a very unique way. The contest cards were hand painted each having a ship going to sea on the cover, with the motto, "Coming events cast their shadows before," beneath the picture. On the inside was a contest of states beginning with Kentucky and ending with Texas, and also a message in cipher code, which the guests were to decipher and which when properly arranged read, "Sorry to leave our friends here, but nothing preventing we move to Texas next month."

These two contests excited much interest and were greatly enjoyed altho regrets were universal that the hostess and her husband are so soon to leave our city. On the back cover of the contest cards was the following blank verse:

Ships that pass in the night
Speak each other in passing,
Only a signal shown,
A distant voice in the darkness
So, on the Ocean of Life,
We pass and speak one another."

Among the guests were noted, Misses Nell Clifton, Martha Henry, Mary Cameron, Della Barnes, Allie Mae Yates, Elizabeth James Frances Woods, Ina Woods.

Mesdames E. Hayward, S. Guenheim, Wallace Clift, Sidney Dupuy, Henry Crawford, Joe Rochester, Ralz Dorr, Marshall Jenkins, Henry Escott, Lucy Finley, Nat Rochester, Robt. Rodgers, Dan Stone, Geo. Roberts, Jas. Henry, Wilbur Haynes, John Wilson.
